

About the Workshop

The workshop will focus on practical examples to improve your bridge game in key areas of bidding, play and defense.

- Bridge is a trick-taking game. You'll see how keeping this in mind can make it easier to take appropriate action on each deal you play.
- You'll discover innovative methods of hand valuation and bids that experts use in competitive auctions.
- You'll find out how you can create and take the tricks needed to make your contract.
- You'll be introduced to how the defenders can work together to get the tricks needed to defeat more contracts.

A partner is not required. Let us get the fourth for bridge.

Better Bridge Tip

Bridge is not a standardized test to measure your intelligence – or the intelligence of your partner. It's a game!
